

Certified Noxious Weed-Free

CHOPPED STRAW BEDDING

Certified Chopped Straw is noxious weed-free and is required by federal and state authorities in protected areas.

- Recommended as bedding for chickens, goats, sheep, rabbits, guinea pigs, and other small animals.
- Excellent choice for all-natural, absorbent, and biodegradable bedding.
- Made by chopping wheat or barley straw into 4" pieces.
- Certified Chopped Straw is easy to use and ensures that consumers only discard soiled bedding.

LANDSCAPING CONSIDERATION

Certified Chopped Straw is processed after seed heads are removed. However, barley or wheat seeds can be present and may germinate if used in gardens or for erosion control. Simply pull seedlings as they appear.

DISCARD SOILED AND WET STRAW AND REPLACE WITH FRESH STRAW DAILY.
